WE RESPECTFULLY DEDICATE the 1962 Cherry Tree
to Dean Elmer Louis Kayser of the Division of University Students. He taught us history, taught our parents history, and made a lasting impression on both generations.

Omicron Delta Kappa

Omicron Delta Kappa is a national honor society which recognizes outstanding members of the student body, faculty, and community. Criteria for membership include excellence in scholarship and leadership. Only the most outstanding men are honored by ODK.

Tapping for Omicron Delta Kappa is held twice a year, at Homecoming and at May Day. One of the highlights of this year's activities was the initiation of President Thomas H. Carroll in the fall.

Mortar Board

Members of Mortar Board, the national senior women's honorary, are chosen on the basis of scholarship, leadership and service to the University. New members are tapped from the junior class each spring at May Day and are traditionally presented with a rose and a black Mortar Board robe by a retiring member. Later they acquire the white flannel blazer which is the trademark of the girls in Mortar Board.

Mortar Board sponsors Tassels, the sophomore women's honorary and contributes to campus life in various ways, including the annual Smarty Party, foreign films, silver studies, a scrapbook contest, and the encouragement of scholarship, leadership, and service.

Tassels

Tassels is established to promote high scholarship, service in activities, greater college loyalty and service, and to develop leadership, and encourage friendships among potential women leaders.

Order of Scarlet

The scarlet ribbon worn in the lapels of members of the Order of Scarlet signifies outstanding potential and demonstrated leadership in activities at the University. This honorary for sophomore and junior men was founded by Dr. Don Faith, retiring Director of Men's Activities. Dr. Faith has served as advisor of the Order since it was founded.

T. Wagner, H. Harper, H. Hill, R. Boucher, D. Siemer.

Aesculapian Society

Aesculapian Society is a pre-medical honorary society which has the distinction of being one of the very few honorary societies that have been founded on the GWU campus. The society seeks to familiarize pre-med students with the career which they will enter upon graduation from medical school. In keeping with this, the group has instituted lectures and field trips to widen the scientific knowledge of its members.

Alpha Pi Epsilon

Alpha Pi Epsilon recognizes outstanding scholarship in home economics subjects as well other academic subjects. This year Alpha Pi sponsored a tea for students new to the home economic department and also a Christmas charity project.

Front: C. Knudson, E. Garfield, President; B. Hagan. Back: A. Oakley, W. Manley, B. Hulson, R. Arnold.

Pi Delta Epsilon

B. Aleshire, D. Siemer, M. Spivak, H. Yager.

Pi Delta Epsilon, the national honorary fraternity for outstanding collegiate journalists, chooses its members from the staffs of the "Hatchet," the Mecheleciv, the Amicus Curiae, and the Cherry Tree. The purpose of Pi Delta Epsilon is to uphold the ideals of good journalism and to promote cooperation among campus publications.

Alpha Lambda Delta

Alpha Lambda Delta is a freshman women's honorary membership in which is granted to fulltime women students who at the end of either their first or second semesters have an overall Q.P.I. of 3.50 or better.

This honorary sponsors a tutoring service for all university students, and also offers three fifteen hundred dollar fellowships.

ORGANIZATIONS

Glee Club and Troubadors

"Pick a little, talk a little . . . cheep, cheep, cheep, pick a lot, talk a little more" from "Music Man," "Showboat," "Oklahoma," "My Fair Lady"—these are the songs you'll hear if you happen to wander into lower Lisner on Tuesday and Thursday nights. Doc Harmon and the Glee Club have been busy again this year. There were conventions, dinners, trips, and the Spring Concert. The annual Christmas presentation of Handel's Messiah was sung before a full house. 1962 promises to be another full year with trips to several colleges and a return visit to the Northeast Air Command including bases in Greenland, Newfoundland, and Labrador.

Student Council

"ARTICLES OF STUDENT GOVERNMENT"

"Title 1. Student Council"

"Article 1. Power"

"There is hereby vested in the Student Council the jurisdiction and authority to regulate, supervise, and coordinate within the limitations of the Board of Trustees, all student activities except intercollegiate athletics and intramural athletics where credit is given."

This is, in a nutshell, just about the size of it. From election to election, the Council organizes, controls, and supervises student activities. The Council sponsors concerts, drama, lectures, the Book Exchange, dances, the Student Directory, and practically everything else that goes on around here.

First Row: L. Clifford, R. Miller, J. Scherff, R. Browning, K. Dwyer, G. Koustenis. Second Row: A. Deluca, R. Manning, P. Pentchev, L. Nelson, E. Avella, R. Ruhl, P. Legg, J. Freeman, J. Bowman.

Kappa Psi

OFFICERS. L. Clifford, R. Browning, J. Sherff, K. Dwyer, President; R. Miller.

Kappa Psi is an organization composed of pharmacy men whose aim is to increase public awareness and interest in the profession of pharmacy. Members constantly strive for scholastic recognition from the national organization and often achieve their goal.

Scholarship, however, is not the only concern of Kappa Psi, which encourages the promotion of sociability and brotherhood through association within the fraternity itself.

International Students' Society

The International Students' Society is an organization whose primary aim is to integrate foreign students with student life at G.W. It provides the main center of social life for our foreign students and introduces them to various cultures the world over. Every foreign student is automatically a member of the Society of which one-fourth of the membership is American. The main social activities of the society are cultural films, lectures, dances, and an annual Christmas party.

Newman Club

The Newman Club stresses all phases of an individual's college life—religious, intellectual, and social—and is the center of Roman Catholic activity on the G. W. campus. The religious phase includes monthly communion breakfasts while the intellectual side is emphasized in weekly discussions with the club chaplain, Father Krastel. Social events include all University affairs as well as club parties on holidays.

Pep Band

The Pep Band is a familiar sight at G.W. contests—leading crowds of cheering Colonials in a chorus of “Hail to the Buff.” In their distinctive red blazers, the Band appears faithfully at each Colonial contest adding spirit to the event. The band is open to all student musicians and even claims a few ladies among its members. A smaller group, the Dixieland band, is made up of members of the Pep Band and entertains at many Lisner functions.

Hillel Foundation

The B'nai B'rith Hillel Foundation for Jewish students is a well known campus organization. This group has regular worship services and sponsors a popular series of lectures. The overall program includes religious as well as welfare programs. Hillel highlights the spring calendar by sponsoring the Ball O' Fire, with the crowning of "Mr. Apollo."

The Home Economics Club, open to all girls enrolled in Home Economics classes, is a member of the National and area Home Economics Associations. The underlying purpose is to promote and stimulate activities of interest to the group, and to share its time and abilities in doing good for others.

Colonial Boosters

The Colonial Boosters was set up to promote school spirit for athletic events. To plan and supervise these events, Boosters has a Governing Board and a booster committee under the board. The Board is chosen in the spring.

The Boosters sponsor "George and Martha," the school's mascots, who are seen at football and basketball games. Petitioning for these positions is held in the spring and early fall.

Colonial Boosters award a cup at May Day to the person in the school who has done the most for school spirit. This is called the Andy Davis Award in honor of one of GWU's great athletes.

*First Row: A. Kevorkian, P. Kerman, L. D'Andre, N. Keim.

Big Sis

Big Sisters provides each new woman student with the advice and friendship of an upperclass woman. The job of the Big Sis is to orient her Little Sis to the ways of the University, help her with registration, and get her off on the right foot in classes and activities.

Big Sis orientation functions include Snack 'n Chat, Tips 'n Tea with Topnotchers, and the Big Sis-Old Men Mixer. This year the program was continued past orientation week with a spaghetti dinner in October given by the Little Sisters. The Junior Advisors in Strong and Madison Halls offer further advice and companionship to new women in the residence halls.

Front: J. Yoshizawa, H. Howard, President. Back: R. McKay, M. Babione, E. King, I. Schmidt.

Pi Lambda Theta

Pi Lambda Theta is a national honor and professional association for women in education. The purpose of the organization is to maintain the highest standards of scholarship and professional preparation and to foster professional spirit and fellowship.

The Alpha Theta Chapter of Pi Lambda Theta is located at this University with a membership of over 250 members. Initiation into membership is held twice yearly.

Religious Council

The organized religious groups on the campus work together through the Religious Council to encourage the expression of religious faith. The Council co-operates in raising student interest and participation in the weekly chapel services and in the Religion in Life Week program.

Each fall a reception is sponsored by the Religious Council to acquaint new students with their advisers and members of the various religious organizations.

Hancock Hall

In September 1961, George Washington University opened the Hancock Residence Hall. This residence hall houses approximately one hundred and fifty girls, a majority of whom are new students to the University.

Although isolated from the campus by a thirty minute bus ride, the "commuting boarders" have maintained close contact with the campus through a faculty tea, open house, tree trimming day, and evening Christmas caroling.

Adams Hall

John Quincy Adams Residence Hall for Men, though located on the fringe of the campus, is central to the academic, social, and athletic lives of the hundred-plus men who live there. The Dorm Council has organized an open house and exchanges with Strong Madison, and Hancock Halls and Adams residents also compete in intramurals.

Hatchet

The "University Hatchet" publishes a weekly summary of campus happenings. Besides being a training ground for student journalists, it serves as University forum, bulletin board, and social register.

"Hatchet" features include such widely varied copy as Auntie Hester Heale's "Foggy Bottom," editorials, feature stories on campus events and personalities, Max Shulman's "On Campus," and the ubiquitous letters from disgruntled students.

Cherry Tree

Tom Wagner	Editor
Marty Gersten	Business Manager
Bonnie Bair	Associate Editor
Sherry Glenn	Associate Editor
John Gannon	Assistant Editor
Carolyn Davis	Editorial Assistant
Kevin Kelly	Editorial Assistant
Helen Griggs	Editorial Assistant

Student Life Committee

The Student Life Committee is composed of six students automatically chosen because of the positions they occupy on campus and five faculty members. The function of the Student Life Committee is to serve as the student government's judicial branch. At monthly meetings throughout the year the committee hears and determines all appeals by any campus organization.

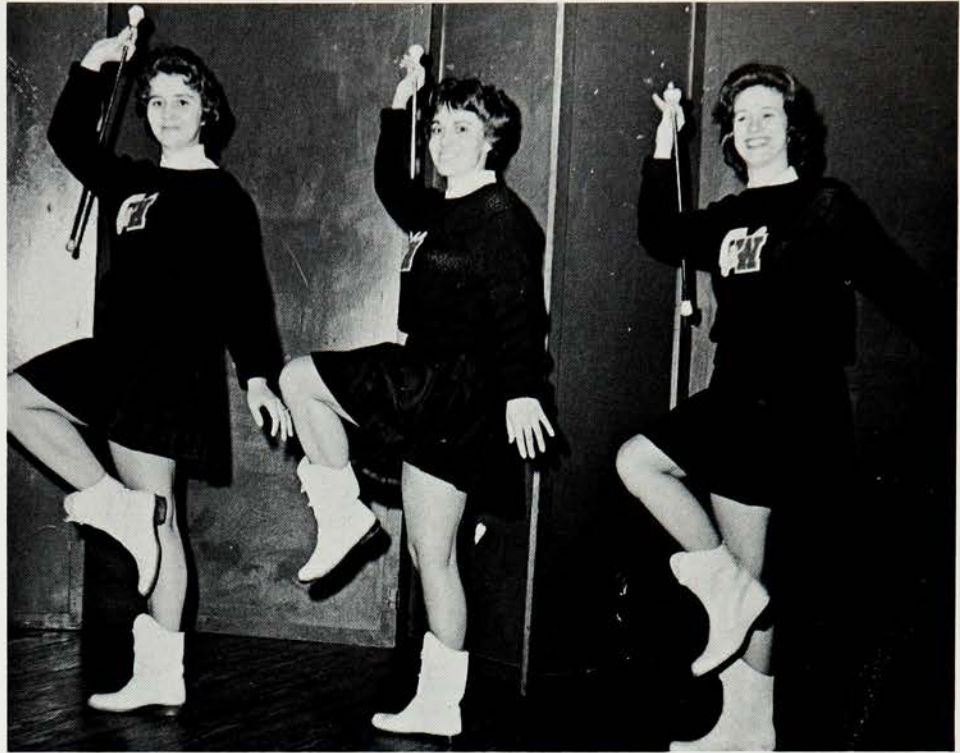

B. Aleshire, S. Swan.

Student's For Better Government

Beginning last spring with a campaign dinner, the Students For Better Government formulated its platform. This platform included the establishment of longer library hours, the improvement of the Student Union food, and the organization of the Cultural Foundation.

Varsity Majorettes

M.Considine, A. Arthur, Captain; D. Renshaw.

As the Pep Band strikes up "Hail to the Buff" the varsity majorettes lend their enthusiasm to the football or basketball games. Their performances add much to the Colonial spirit.

SNEA

J. Allen, T. Rowsey.

The Student National Education Association initiates discussions concerning the advantages of and problems involved in the field of education. Guest speakers bring education majors current information on the teaching field and help the members to take a professional outlook toward the future. Through the organization, the members can evaluate various teaching theories and concepts before graduation. With a balanced program in mind, the SNEA alternates one business meeting with one social meeting a month.

Women's Athletic Association

This enthusiastic group of girls co-ordinates all women's athletics at George Washington. Hockey, tennis, rifle, bowling, basketball, badminton, softball, fencing, and swimming cover almost any sports interest of University women. Because of awards given to outstanding athletes, competition among players is evident. This keen competition is overshadowed only by the emphasis on good sportsmanship.

Strong Hall

Uniting the girls of Strong Hall are their common trials and tribulations—midnight fire drills, the forever broken elevator, and that old problem of forgetting to sign out or in. In spite of these problems, the constantly buzzing switchboard, evening serenades, faculty teas, and two open houses keep the popular Strong Hall girls happy and active.

Madison Hall

From the first fall onslaught of battered trunks and shrieks of reunion to the chaotic farewells in May and then the settling of new summer residents, the halls of Madison are full of activity. The popular Madison girls participate in numerous campus activities and have a busy social schedule, as evidenced by the buzzing switchboard and the hectic date preparations, and in command of the whole happy situation is the Dorm Council.

Alpha Kappa Psi

The aims of Alpha Kappa Psi are "to further the individual welfare of its members; to foster scientific research in the fields of commerce, accounts, and finance; to educate the public to appreciate and demand higher ideals therein; and to promote and advance in institutions of college rank, courses leading to degrees in business administration.

The GWU chapter conducts a definite program of professional activity each year. In addition to this, an information booth is maintained during registration and funds were collected for a United Givers Fund organization during the Christmas season.

Christian Science Organization

The Christian Science Organization is a small group with many activities. This group tries to provide accurate information concerning Christian Science to all who seek it. Student conducted services and a drive to make available to students of all denominations a room on campus for the study of religious writings are but a few of the projects undertaken by this group.

Welling Hall

Welling Hall, one of the three men's dormitories at the University, houses about 90 GWU men. It is the only dorm with its own dining hall. The Welling Hall Council is its governing body and is composed of one representative from each floor.

This dorm is well oriented with campus life through its participation in intramurals and an active social program.

Dance Production Groups

The Dance Production Groups meet regularly throughout the year, dancing, choreographing, and experimenting in new techniques of modern dance. Adding new dimensions to dance, the matrix art, the three dance groups use the services of musicians, artists, and stage and lighting experts in planning their many programs.

During 1961-1962 the dancers choreographed and presented the dance portions of the Fall production of the University Players, "Pajama Game," and participated in workshops and classes on dance. The annual Spring Dance Concert was the culmination of a year of work and experimentation in dance technique.

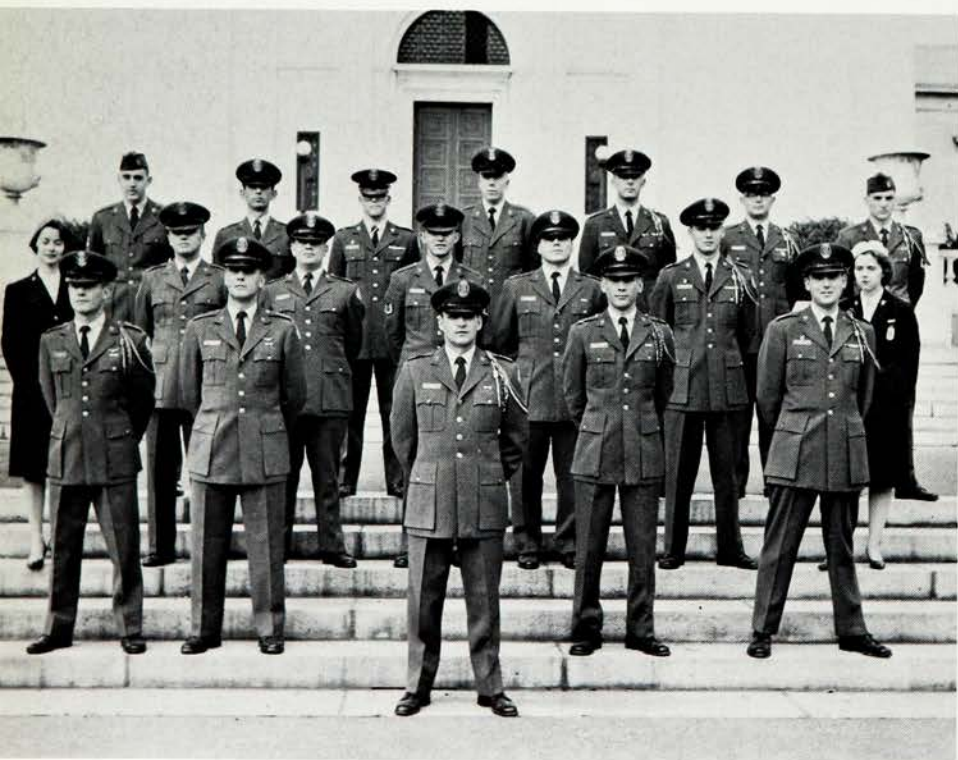

R.O.T.C.

The AFROTC program exists to train cadets in the fundamental military skills, including command and group leadership. Cadets selected for the advanced corps actually organize and run the Corps under the supervision of the Professor of Air Science and his staff. At the end of their senior year cadets of the advanced corps are commissioned second lieutenants in the Air Force Reserve.

Corps activities during the year include the Military Ball—held last year at the Bolling AFB Officers' Club with music by the Airmen of Note, the Air Force dance band—drill exhibitions such as those put on by the Pershing Rifles during the Homecoming parade, intramural competition, and other contributions to University life such as the second-place ROTC Homecoming float. Cadets also served as escorts for the Homecoming queen finalists and as a guard of honor for the football team at the Boston U. game. The climax of the year's activities is the annual parade and review held early in May at West Potomac Park at which time awards are presented and recognition given for accomplishments within the Corps.

SPORTS

Football

From the open spaces and full stadiums of the Big Ten came Jim Camp, former backfield coach of a championship Minnesota team. He came to George Washington with hopes of still another championship, that of the Southern Conference.

He reached into the deep South and came up with Dooley and Collins, young men from Mississippi State, a powerhouse of the South Eastern Conference. Dooley coached the line into a rock-ribbed outfit that was the scourge of the conference; while Collins, before he was called back into the Service, worked ably with the backfield.

Coach Camp brought the flavor of Big Ten football to "G" Street and made the natives agree with Murray Warmath, under whom he had worked at Minnesota, when he said, "Losing Jim is a blow to us, but it is a certain gain for George Washington."

Coach Jim Camp

THE SEASON

It was a year of utter frustrations. We won three and lost six, but if our point total had been spread around just a bit, the record might have been just the opposite. We lost to Richmond by one point, to Furman by four, and to West Virginia by only five. Three games lost by ten points, and so the season passed.

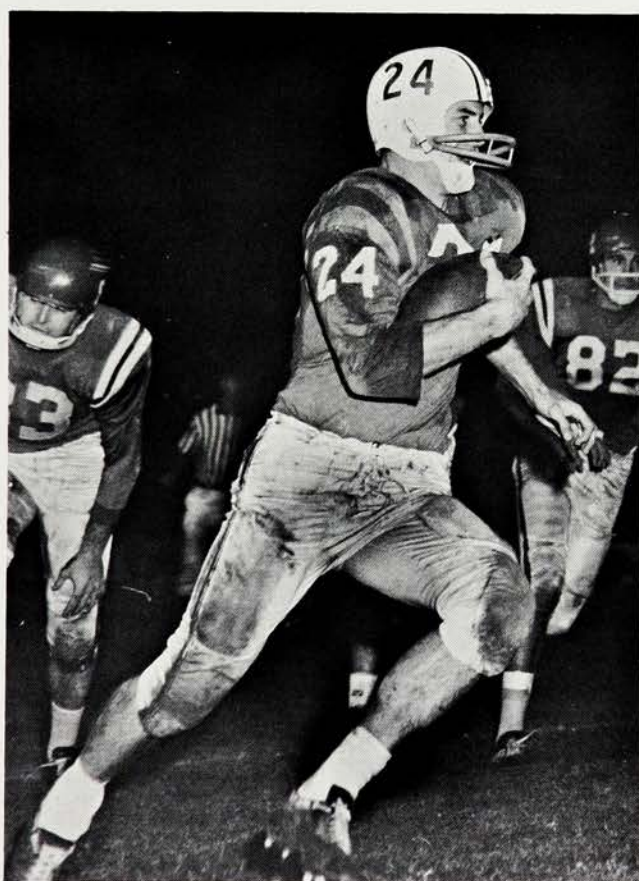

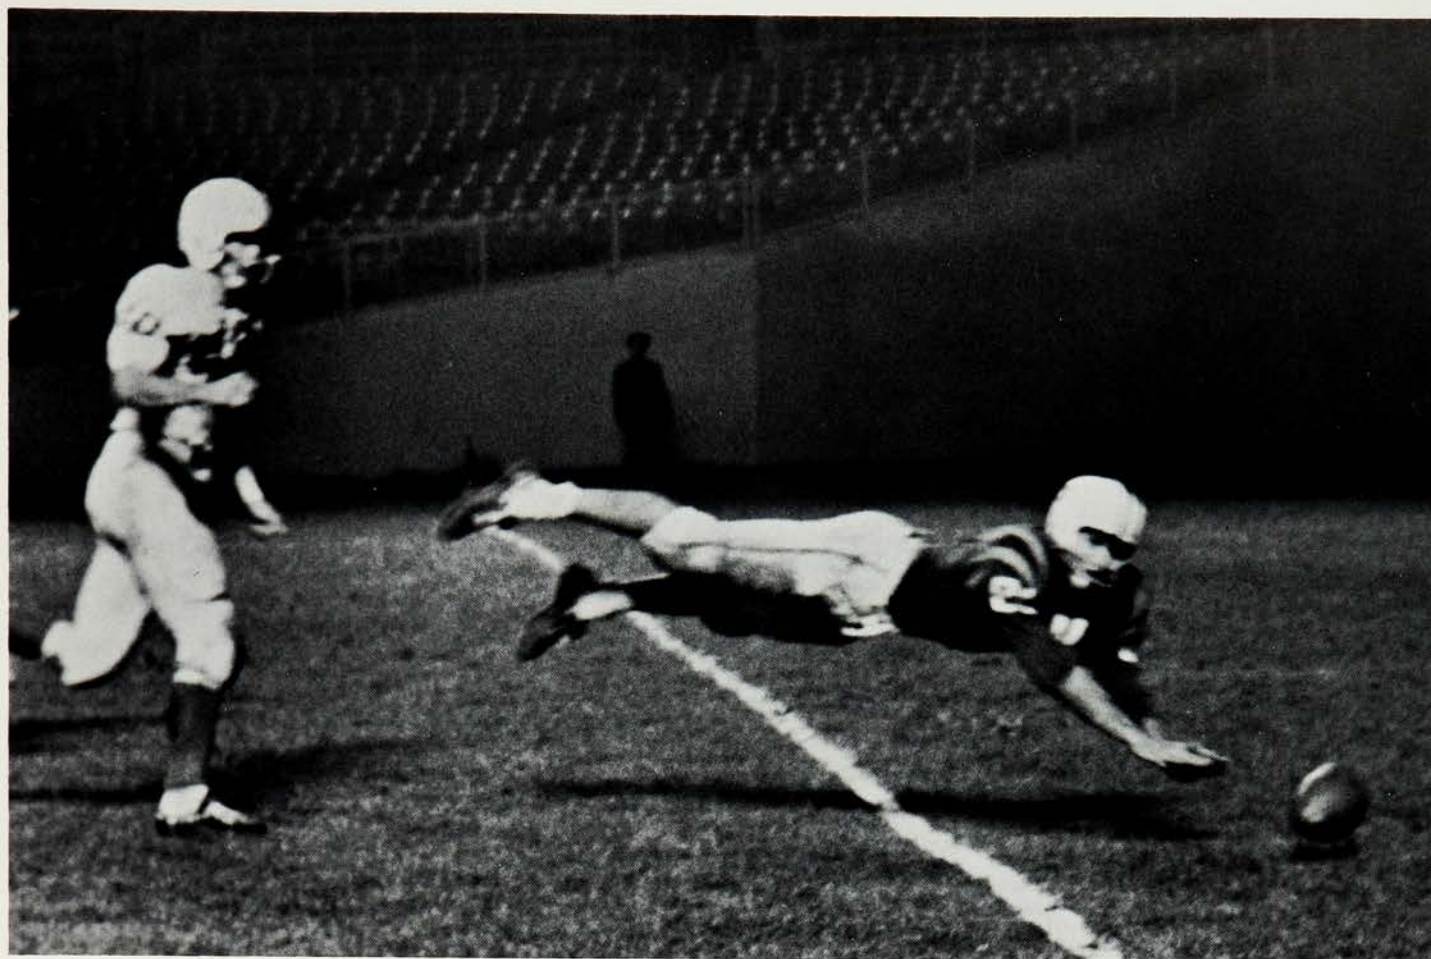

But do not despair, there remains a fine nucleus for next year. Joe Heilman, Cliff Boytos, Gary Scollick, Rudy Pohl, Paul Munley, and others will return to the strong Colonial line; while Dick Drummond, Jim Johnson, Tony Fredicine, and Frank Pazzaglia will return to the backfield. Take heart, fans, the future appears bright indeed.

Basketball

Coach Rhinehart has been at GW for 20 seasons, and his teams have won over 60 per cent of their games during the 31 years he has coached.

In the past eight years he has produced two Southern Conference champs. His overall record here is a phenomenal 283 wins against 176 losses.

Coach Rhinehart's proteges resemble a who's who in the athletic world; Joe Gordon, Red Auerbach, Joe Holup, Corky Deulin, and most recently, Jon Feldman. If the mark of a good coach is the players he produces, Rhinehart ranks with the best.

The Colonials suffered a losing season despite the outstanding play of Jon Feldman and Joe Adamitis. The team started like a thoroughbred against Virginia Tech but disaster struck in the form of the William and Mary Indians. And so the season progressed with outstanding games offset by humiliating defeats.

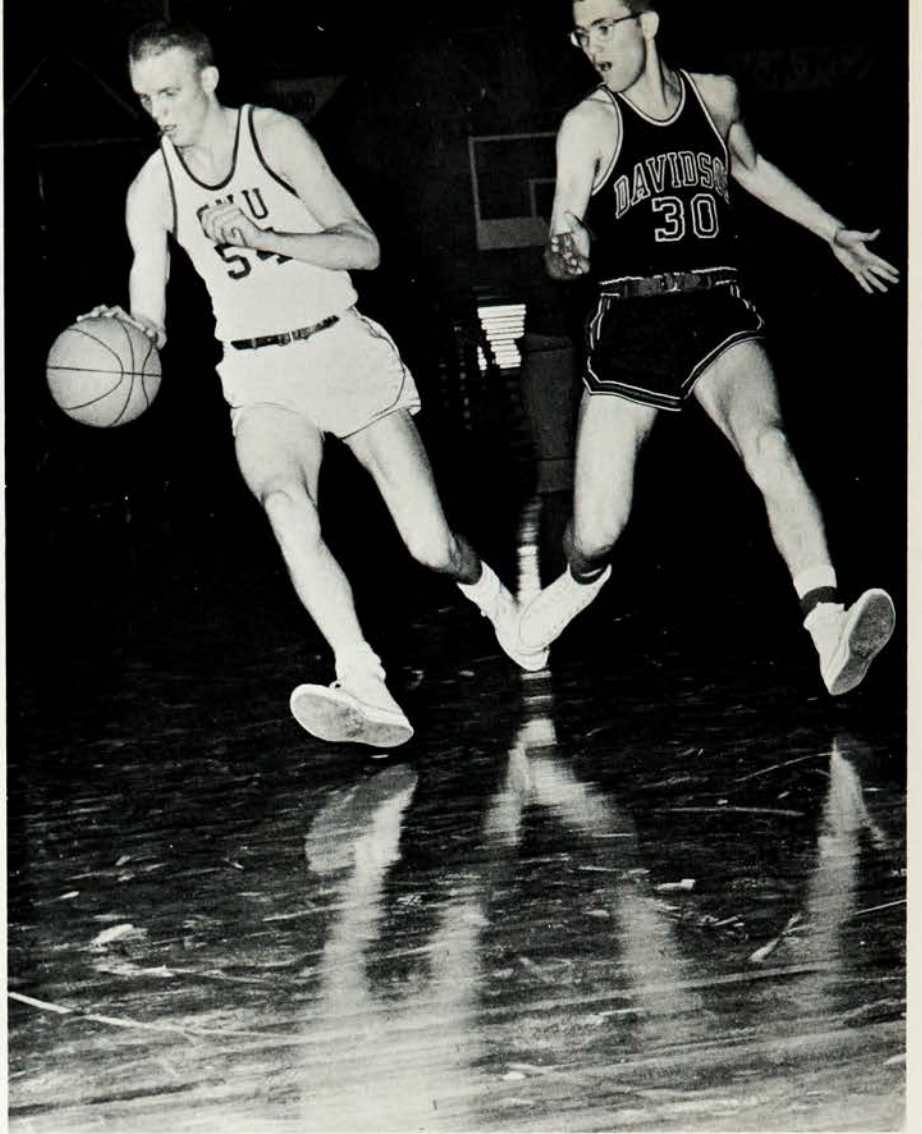

Probably the hi-water mark of the season was the 82-65 victory over Georgetown in which Jon Feldman pumped in 41 points and the boys from the hilltop left the Fort Meyer Gym with a bitter taste of defeat. But crushing defeats at the hands of the West Virginia Mountaineers and Cincinnati tarnished the heroic effort against Georgetown.

Tennis

Up until last year the Colonial netmen had won the Southern Conference tournament five years in a row, and all evidence pointed to a continued dominance this year. This year's should rate among the best in a long line of fine G.W. tennis teams. This prediction is founded upon the well-balanced freshman team of 1961 which went through the entire season without a defeat. They were headed by Steve Kahn, a Norfolk product undefeated in singles play, and Buddy Goeltz, the Washington area's top-ranked mens' player.

Remaining from last year's team will be Mark Sherry, third runner-up in the tournament singles, and Marty Gersten, a consistently improving varsity player.

Golf

Last year's linksters compiled a modest overall record of 5-3. This year's team, with Bob Faris again at the helm, has been plagued by the loss of Bob Harvey, winner of the Southern Conference tournament and the team's most consistent performer. The three returning lettermen expected to carry the main burden were Steve Rubin and Seth Rosen, who compiled 6-2 and 5-3 records respectively, and Herb Goldblatt.

Baseball

With the return of Jim Farley Bill Pasche, Bill Hardy, and Al Jones the '62 hopes of colonial baseball appeared to be bright.

Last year's team had a mediocre overall record but fared well against Southern Conference opposition. The mound staff has been considerably shored-up by the appearance of John Papanicolas who came from Montgomery Jr. College where he was Junior College All-American.

Rifle

The Colonial Rifle Team showed a marked improvement during the 1961-62 season under the leadership of its new coach, Glenn Young. The squad fired its highest score in four years in defeating Georgetown 1391-1374. Juris Simanis, who made the 1960-61 All-Southern Conference team, fired the highest individual score, 97-96-97-290, against William and Mary.

With only two members of the squad graduating, prospects for next year appear bright.

Crew

If one were to stroll by the Potomac early in the morning during this past spring, chances are he would have seen our hard working crew limbering up for their next race.

Coach Sandy Sanborn built his '62 team around the success of four returning lettermen, Lou Adamo, Tom Rogers, Jon Hagerty, and Serge Yanov.

Last year in an informal race George Washington defeated Howard and one month later they turned back American University. In the annual Dad Vail Regatta, G.W. placed eleventh out of twenty. This was a marked improvement over the previous year in which we placed twelfth.

Intramurals

In a very close race, Sigma Alpha Epsilon won the 1960-61 overall intramural trophy without ever winning an individual event. This year's race is proving just as close and just as interesting.

Intramural competition takes place throughout the year in football, basketball, baseball, track, golf, badminton, ping pong, foul shooting, bowling, swimming, and wrestling.

Pan Hellenic Council

The Panhellenic Council co-ordinates and regulates all intersorority activities on campus. The Council is composed of a president and one delegate from each sorority and the Wandering Greeks. In addition to the regulation of rushing and pledging procedures, the Panhellenic Council takes part in the orientation activities for new women students. Panhel recognizes scholastic achievement by awards to the pledge class and active chapter which have maintained the highest QPI's for the semester. Panhel Weekend, held every spring, includes a competitive Friday night sing and a formal dance on Saturday night.

Because Goat Show was set for such a late date this year, Junior Panhellenic Council decided to have the thirteen pledge classes assemble for a luncheon in Lisner Lounge. Individual pledge classes sang one of their sorority songs, and then the girls mixed in different groups to meet pledges from other sororities.

Goat Show was held on December 15th this year with Sigma Kappa, Kappa Kappa Gamma, and Delta Gamma sharing honors under a new award system.

Junior Panhel wishes to thank Miss Oliver, Office of Women's Activities adviser and Hannah Jopling, Senior Panhel adviser for their much appreciated advice and support.

ISAB

The Inter-Sorority Athletic Board is an organization devoted to promoting cooperation and good sportsmanship among the thirteen sororities on campus.

ISAB, organized by the Women's Athletic Association, sponsors one tournament a month in such sports as tennis, bowling, table tennis, volleyball, badminton, and golf. It also participates in the spring swimming tournament held by W.A.A.

In the spring at the annual Women's Athletic Association banquet, ISAB presents an individual trophy to the winner of each tournament and first, second, and third place cups to the sororities with the highest point totals accumulation.

Interfraternity Council

The Interfraternity Council, headed by President Jay Baraff, is the governing body which promotes good relations among fraternities and establishes and enforces the rush rules. Annually it sponsors an IFC Smoker for new men students. The IFC and Panhellenic jointly sponsor a barbeque during Orientation Week for all new students. The big event of the spring semester is the IFC Sing and Prom. At the sing the fraternities compete for trophies for best singing and best director. The IFC also awards a trophy to the fraternity with the highest scholastic rating on campus. The Sigma Chi Trophy is also given to the fraternity with the greatest scholastic improvement for a year.
